Dear Maya,

Well, we've been saying "It's the thought that counts" so I won't exert myself in this epistle I'm gonna write. I know you'll understand. Here goes —

We've had so many rocking times the past few years. Of course, there have been times where we couldn't get along, but that's to be expected in a friendship. But there have been better times — the times we've spent the night together, gone to parties, had parties, cried together, laughed together, shared secrets and everything.

And our sorority, the Alpha Beta Chi. I Boy! The rocking times we had!! And how we cried when we found out Dixie was leaving, and all the last minute pleasures we tried to squeeze in before

Kathy had to leave — And going to the airport to see her off — Gally — We cried more than she did — AND —

The time you and I spent the night with you and how

I tried to convince you that all I really wanted to do was help people - Remember Maya, I love everybody! And Pan certainly has an interesting cedar chest, doesn't she?

of a kind!

Oh yes - The Band trip to Panama City - Rocking, wasn't it? Of course that was a few years ago when our friendship was just beginning -

Maya - I've had so many good times to - together - I could never attempt to write of them.

Our friendship has had its ups and downs, specially this year, when we weren't sure if we were friends or not. But we never should have been so sure, because a true friendship is everlasting! Here's my philosophy of friendship - friendship is sacred; in it are love, trust, and understanding;

to have a friend, one must be a friend. Only when this is so, should one expect to have friends. That's my philosophy is true of us - For we are thank you for being so.

May life be with you with all her love and happiness, for you truly deserve it.
Maya, may God bless you always, I

Thank you for our friendship.
You are a wonderful person. I think the world of you.

With much love and
admiration,
Andrea

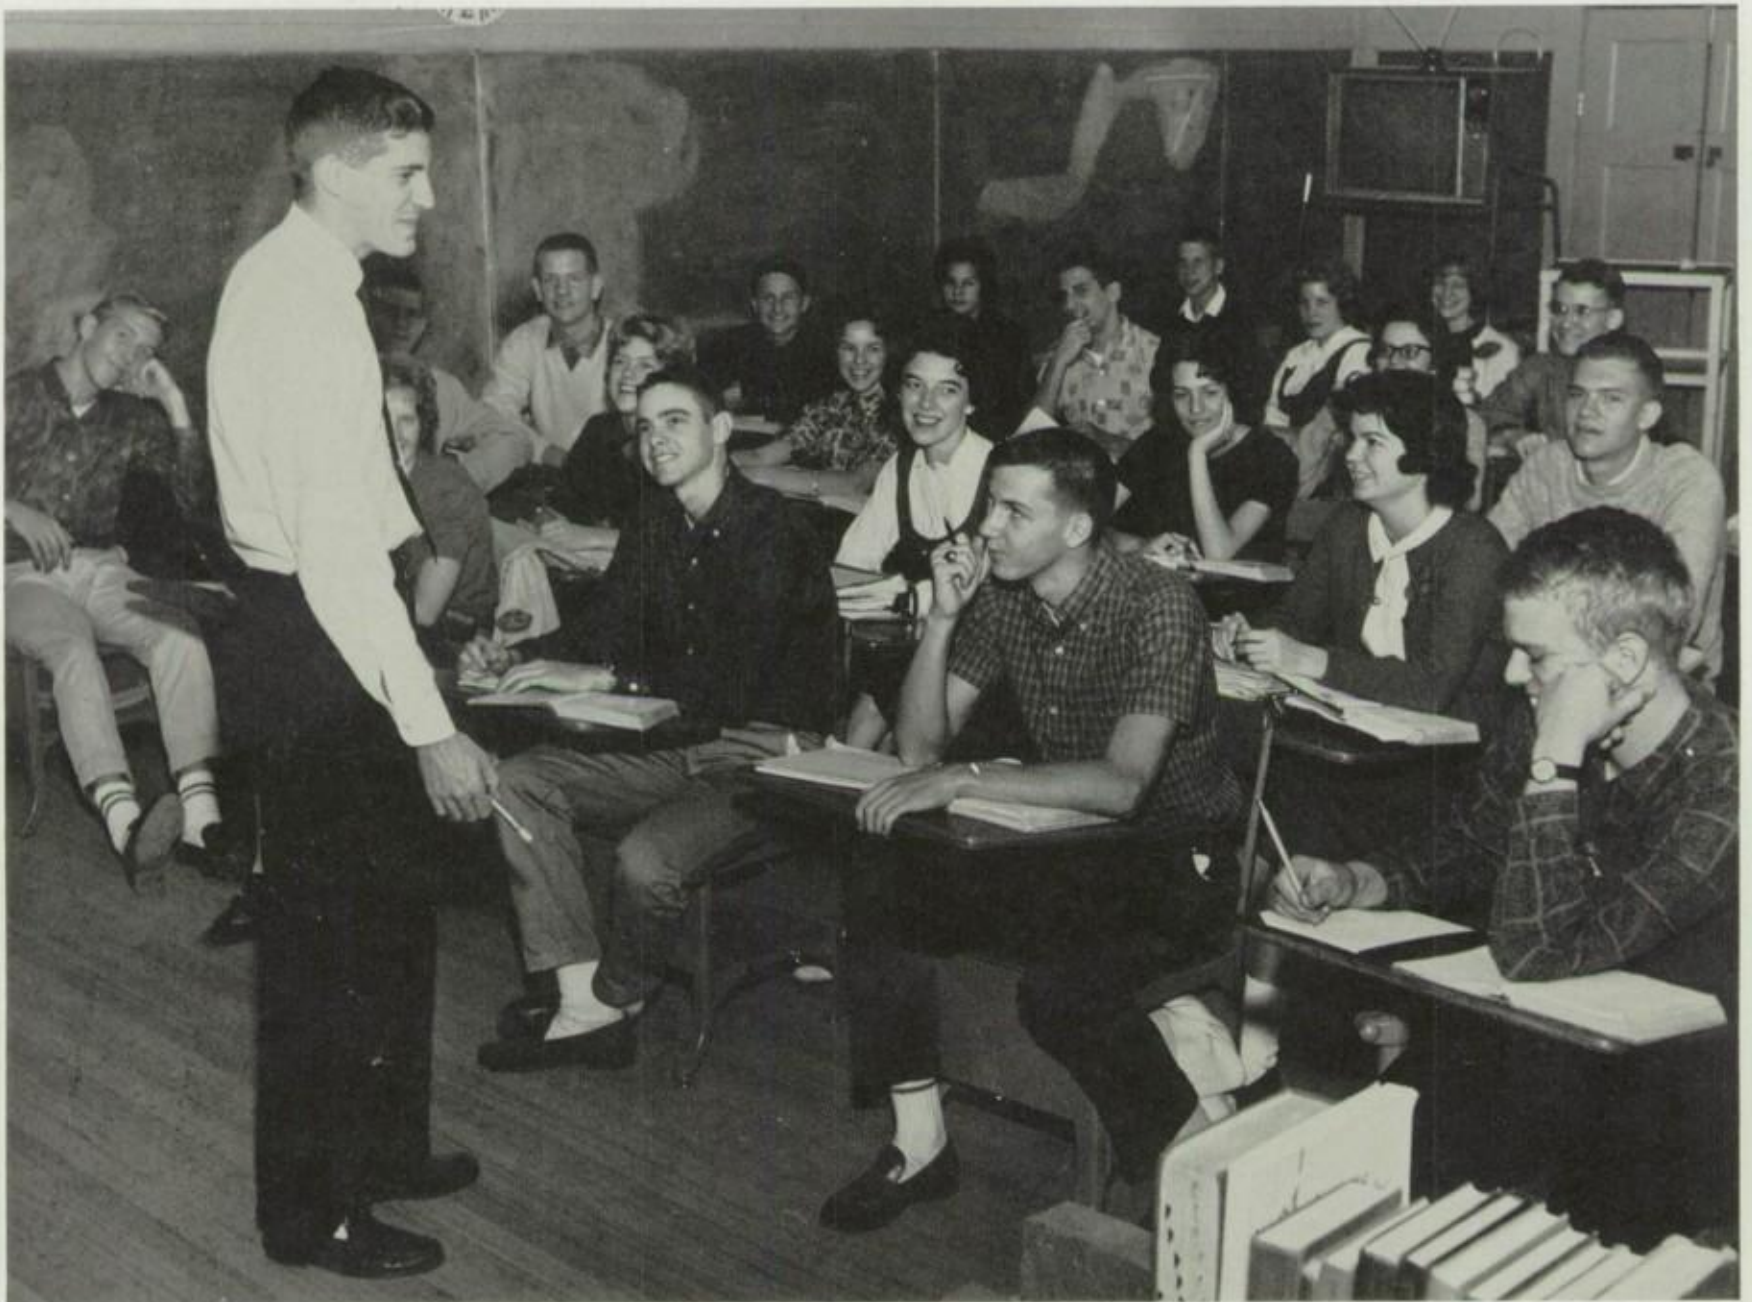

Dear Myra,
I love you! Your true friendship and affection has meant very much to me since we've known each other. We have come a long way in school together and it doesn't seem possible that DEDICATION we will finally graduate next year (Yea class of '63). Just think we'll be Seniors! Myra, you did a beautiful job on the drill team this year - boy you shore looked good out there!

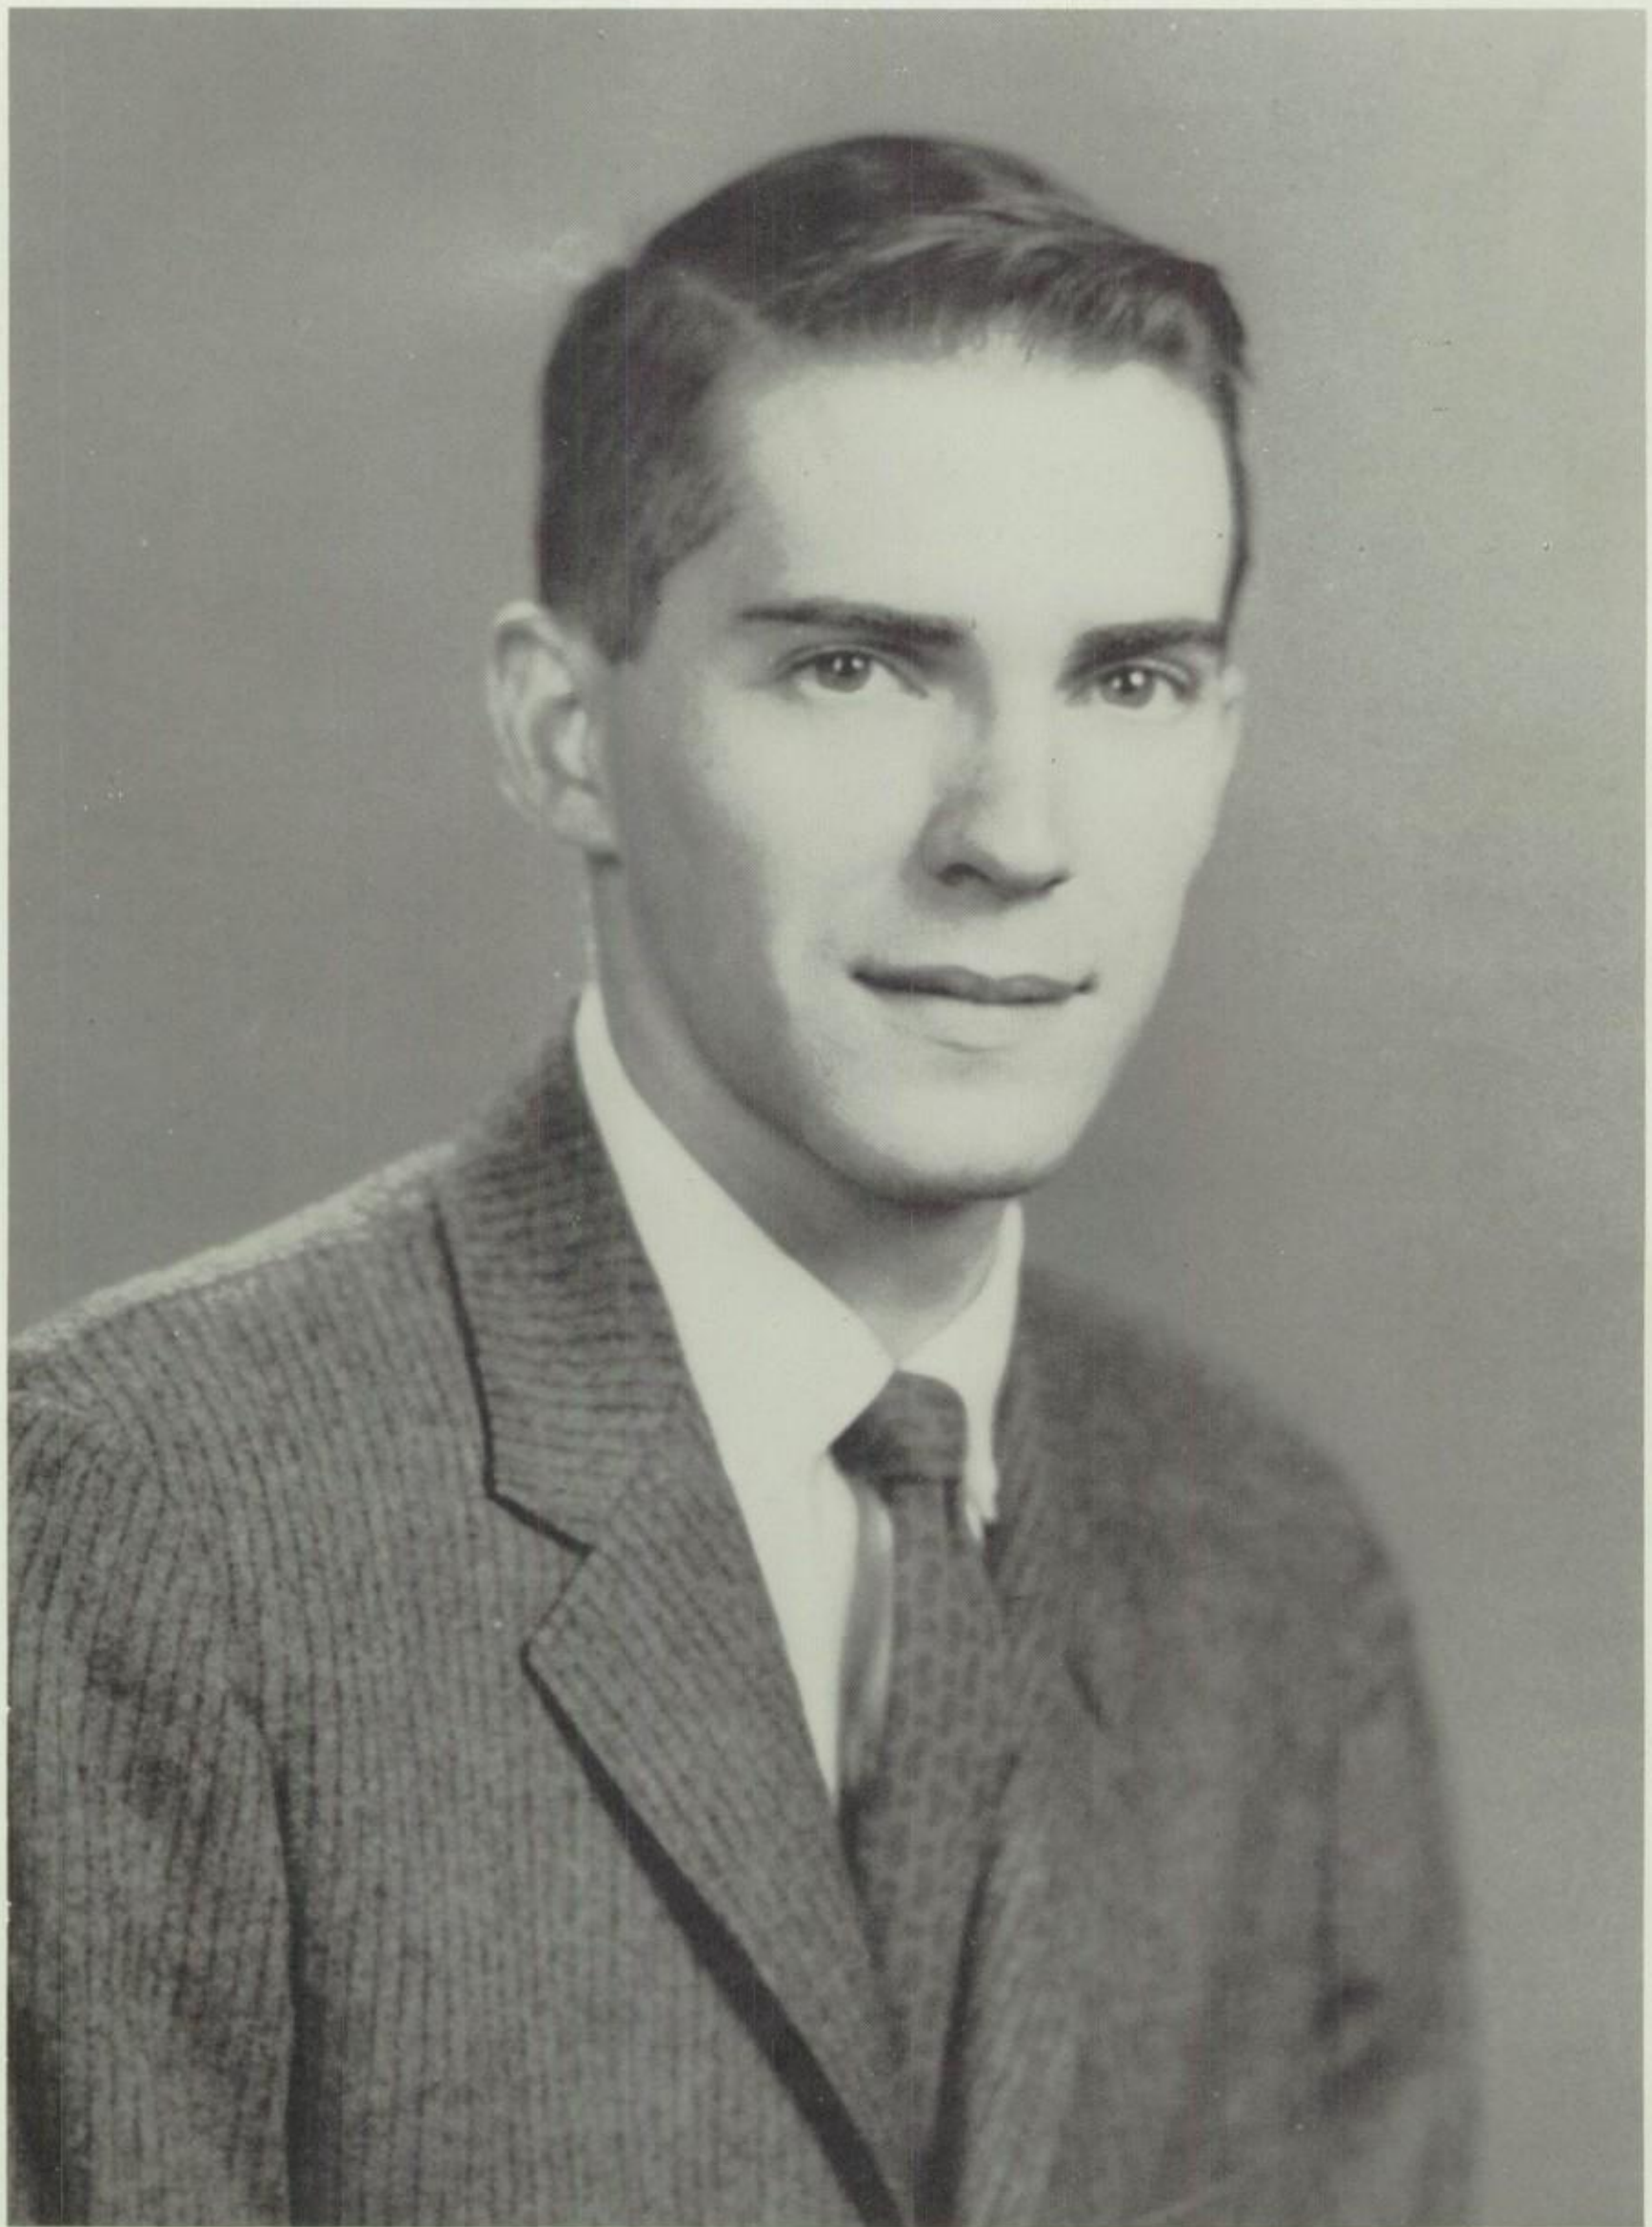

Well Myra, you're a wonderful girl and a loyal friend and I wish you only the very best in all you undertake. Best o' luck to your intense love of life and your zeal for living each day to its fullest. Love and kisses,

Because of these and your willingness to serve others in every way possible, we the Senior Class of 1962 do dedicate this SAGA to you...

Dear Seniors:

One of the highlights of my life has been the privilege of the opportunity to become associated with Druid Hills High School, and especially the Class of '62. The members of this class have cloaked themselves with a degree of dignity and seriousness of purpose rarely found in this land of ours.

As we have sat together during conferences with individuals, committees and in assemblies, we have not always agreed, but we have nurtured a mutual respect and understanding for each other. We have not veered from the basic principle of the education process -- to produce a sound mind in a sound body.

You now possess nearly all the fundamental tools necessary to conquer any phase of higher education. It is my prayer that all of you will meet with success in whatever paths you choose to follow. May Druid Hills, The School of Champions, be further enhanced through the future deeds of the Class of '62.

Sincerely,

Bert W. Fulford

Dear Mary,
 Well another year at Druid Hills is almost over.
 For me it is the last but you will have one more - your senior year - which of course will be your most important one.
 It has been great knowing
 you first
 in band
 & then
 when you
 made Drill
 Team. I know you will always
 go far
 in life
 and have many friends
 because of your smile &
 personality.
 Best wishes
 always -
 Love,
 Mary

Dear Myra,

Well, another year has passed and we have remained good friends. I'm not surprised because we have one thing big in common (Marist). They have really shown us a good time. I'll never forget last year - Ugh!

I'm so glad you're on the team. You really look good on it. I know next year it'll be even better.

I'll need time of hearing of your many loves, you have a lot of them - how do you do it? You're a darling girl and I hope we can get together this summer.

Love,
Susan

Dear Myra,

Well, cutie I guess the best way to begin is to tell you what a riot it's been knowing you. I'll never forget what a great time it's been going with you & Joan and the girls and of course I can't forget the times you've spent the night. It's been on pure ^{hell} raising time!!

You're great on the Drill Team, and I love to watch you. You are one of the sweetest cutest girls I know with a great personality!

I hope that just because Joan isn't going to be here that we can always be close friends. Ok? I respect you a lot, Myra, and even though we cut each other like every-thing, I want you to know that I think a lot of you.

Be good to your Jack, and I'll be good to my Jack, and I hope I see a lot of you this summer. Ok?

Be good (if possible) and Good Luck to a great looking girl.

May God Bless you Always.

Love ya!

Hi Myra,

Well, I've only known you for one year, but it seems like years. Just think, if I hadn't called you Christmas we might still just be cutting up in Spanish, but think of all the cutting up we've done outside of class. Will you ever forget that first fight we had over Jack. You've got quite a nut on your hands, but hang on to him.

Hey - Dirty Rush Girl - will you ever forget all those TKA parties? They are pretty rockin in spite of the B-----ds. Jimmy Cop is quickly becoming the biggest.

Don't forget "Godd Ole" D.C. & all the fun we had. You'll have to come up next year & raise some H----. How about those boys on the train from Western. That's the only good thing about the whole train trip. BIP!!! Have you seen any twinks lately?

How do you like "Peanuts" story?

Don't forget my lilac perfume. ^(Really couldn't remember what I started there)

Best of Luck & Success to a fine friend

Love,

Joanie
